reached out to share in God's love towards their local children of families as construction workers. As well as the homeless and those in need in the Patong area. We brought food and essential items to bless them.

What we offered may have seemed small in the eyes of the world, but behind every gift was a message of God's hope and His great love. A love that sees, cares, and provides. That never abandons anyone in need, no matter what situation they find themselves in.

earning an income to support their families. Community family children, which form a dynamic part of their congregation, making the church a centre of hope and fellowship for entire families.

MV House Church, Nong Suea, is situated about 40 kilometres from Don Mueang Airport, making it both accessible and a significant outreach point for the community workers in this region.

MV House Church, Nong Suea

31 August, we visited the MV House Church in Nong Suea, Pathum Thani (Khlong 12).

The church is located in an agricultural zone where the land is primarily used for farming and residential purposes, reflecting the rural lifestyle of their community.

The ministry is family led, by Pastor Nookie, his wife, and their son, who have been faithfully serving under MVT for the last 8 months. They are actively involved in MVT's online discipleship training, equipping themselves for greater ministry impact within their community.

The church community is primarily made up of families with children, many of whom work in vegetable farms, agriculture, and construction,
